FIVE INVITATION CARDS FOR TWO

Would You Know I Was Flirting?

Take turns reading a card. The listener guesses what the invitation might mean. The speaker says what it would mean to them. It can be flirting, wanting company, or exactly what the words say.

01 “Want to ride along?”

An errand? Ten minutes with the music up and you beside me?

02 “Remember this song?”

A request for the title? A little visit to the year we met?

03 “Come look at this.”

A funny video? A chance to see if it makes you laugh, too?

04 “There’s room over here.”

Offering a seat? Hoping you’ll sit close for a while?

05 “Still awake?”

Checking the time? Hoping for a few quiet minutes together?

A phrase only the two of us would recognize, and what I sometimes mean by it

If a guess surprises you, ask, “What does it mean when you say it?” Let the speaker have the last word about their intention.
